Senator Foraker's Speech.

Senator Foraker's speech was chiefly notable for its discussion of the question of government by injunction," reject in the Ohio Democratic platform. His remarks on this subject follow:

The third special denunciation of the Democratic platform to which I have called attention is of what it terms government by in-

This phrase expresses a very dangerous thought.

All the judicial power of our Government is vested by the Constitution in our Supreme Court and such inferior courts as Congress shall from time to time ordain and establish. The Constitution thus imposes upon Congress the duty of providing for the exercise by suitable tribunals of all the Judicial power that belongs to the Government. For Congress in the distribution of judicial power to fail or refuse to invest some court, somewhere, with the equitable power of injunction, would be to violate the Constitution and commit an act of revolution. For Congress to invest certain courts with that power, as has been done, and then divest them of it, as now proposed, without at the same time investing some other court with such power, would be equally a violation of the Constitution and an act of revolution. But aside from all this, as a mere matter of policy, the proposition is the very essence of unwisdom. COURTS THE REPUGE OF THE POOR

The courts of our country have ever been the conservative and preservative force in our Government. They are the one department unmoved by the excitements of, and the prejudices of, the passing hour. No man is so humble but that, if he imagines himself aggrieved, no matter by whom, he does not know that in and through the courts his

There is another feature of this proposition that makes it still more reprehensible and inexcusable and that is the demagogy of which it is born. It is intended to capture the vote of the labor union.

On that account it is anything but a compliment to the intelligence and patriotism of laboring men. The true friend of labor unions is the man who will tell them the truth, and not the demagogue who, prating of friendship, holds out false promises and elusive hopes of something that is unattain-

Every laboring man should know that naturally all men are his friends. In some form or other all must labor in this world, and hundanity sympathizes with humanity the world over.

But there are certain limitations in all human affairs, fixed in the very nature of things, beyond which sympathles will not go, no matter in whose behalf they may be invoked. This is especially true as to all governmental affairs, and, accordingly, we find in the nature of our institutions natural limitations upon legislative remedies. Doubtless there have been instances of an erroneous use, or even an abuse, of the wri of injunction, but the American people will not strip their courts of their wholesome and beneficent power to restrain threatened violations of personal and property rights to prevent the recurrence of such occasional wrongs. To do so would be a blow at vital principles

It is far better to leave the parties affected by erroneous judgments that may be given to find their relief in the higher courts to which they may appeal, requiring us all alike to loyally abide whatever final judgment may be ultimately rendered. For no matter what may be said to the contrary, we all know that our courts honestly strive to administer equal and exact justice; and all should know that they who strip them of their legitimate power place themselves in a bad light before the American people. When men find that they have purposes which are in conflict with the law, as administered by our courts of equity, the best thing they can do is to abandon them, for it may be safely assumed that what an American court of equity will not allow should not pe done. And the worst thing men can do who find themselves in such a situation is to join the Democratic party and attempt to make the judiciary of our country the football of party For nothing is more certain than that the laws of this country and the courts that administer them will be upheld, and the political party that does not recognize shis fact is unworthy to be intrusted with

There never was a time when our Democratic friends had acceptable principles, but there was a time when they had these other attributes, but that time was a long time ago. free silver men charge that they were

The free silver men charge that they were buncoed out of a victory in 1895 by the defection of the gold Democrate, and the gold Democrate charge that their party was discredited and disgraced by the free silver men, who gained control of it in that year.

There is but one single exception recorded to this wholesale mutual denunciation, and that is the case of Mr. John H. Clarke, who has been ostentatiously pardoned by Mr. Bryan for the offence of being a gold Democration 1896, on the ground that he didn't know any better. This theory finds confirmation in the fact that Mr. Clarke is willing in the bright light of the present to become a candidate for United States Senator on a platform that proclaims all the heresies on a platform that proclaims all the heresies and Col. "There is also a very kindly feeling in the South toward Judge Parker of New York, who recently visited our State. The disposition in the South is to listen to the voice of New York more than any other State

The Republican party, after careful consideration and thorough discussion, reached the conclusion that under the Constitution of the United States we have power to acquire, hold and govern territory without making it a part of the United States; and that in governing such territory Congress is at liberty to provide such institutions of government and to enact such legislation as the necessities of each particular case may seem to require, and the Supreme Court of the United States has sustained this view.

There is no question open for discussion therefore, as to the acquisition of these islands, for they have been acquired neither is there room for any talk or discussion about giving them independence, for that is impossible, in view of the obligations we have assumed, for years to come; nor is there any question open for debate as to our power to govern them as we are governing them, for the Supreme Court has held that we have the power to do all we have done, or are proposing to do. The sole question for discussion is whether or not we have acted wisely in governing as we have.

Every peaceable Filipino has been at all times, since our occupation commenced, under our protection, as well as subject, to

Every peaceable Filipino has been at all times, since our occupation commenced, under our protection, as well as subject to our authority, and, as a result, in the full enloyment of as liberal and generous a government as we have ever given to the people of any Territory of the United States; a more liberal government, in fact, than the people of New Mexico and Arizona and Alaska and Hawali sre living under to-day.

Day by day good results are becoming more and more manifest, and the time is not far distant when men will wonder why there should ever have been opposition to our policies, for time will show that we are engaged in a noble and patriotic work of humanity and civilization, that will be crowned with such success that the chapter which records our achievements will be one of the brightest in American history. That man and that party are to be pitted who will be so unfortunate as to have no right to claim any share in the great credit that history and posterity will ascribe to those who are doing this work.

But there are other reasons why the Democratic party should be defeated. We must deal in the pear future with very innortant grieved, no matter by whom, he does not know that in and through the courts his wrongs may be redressed, and who does not have in that fact an ever present assurance of the protection of government for his life, liberty and property?

There have no doubt been miscarriages of justice in the future, for nothing that is dependent upon human agency can be at all times perfect in two operations. But, taken as a whole, our Judgeshave, have always met the just expectations of our people, and in their independence, their honor and their feurlessness in the discharge of their duties we have ever found a comforting grarantee of the permanency of our institutions.

No greater calamity could befall us than the serious impairment of the usefulness of this department of our Government. To deprive our courts of any parts of their rightful jurisdetion would be at least a step in that direction. Only banieful results could follow.

HERRICK, HANNA, ROOSEVELT.

Instead of voting for a change, Ohio should "stand pat." The election of Col. Herrick will not only insure a continuance of the wise and satisfactory administration of Gov. Nash, but it will place at the head of our State one of the ablest and most deserving of our fellow citizens, who has ever been a stanch and faithful representative of the highest and best type of Republicanism; and a Republican best type of Republicanism; and a Republican to the term the invaluable services of Senator Hanna. HERRICK, HANNA, ROOSEVELT.

Legislature will insure to the nation for another term the invaluable services of Senator Hanna.

We have never had a representative in the United States Senate who has better earned this honor. He has rendered there the most conspicuous services. Not Ohio alone, but the whole nation is indebted to him for what he has done. He is a great leader, not only in the councils of his party, but also in the legislation and statesmanship of his time. He is broad minded, patriotic and thoroughly American. He stands at all times for the best interests of his country, and is ever ready and able to efficiently uphold his cause. His defeat would be a national disappointment and a State humiliation.

With victory this year for Healtek and Hanna, Ohio will then be ready to head the column for Roosevelt next year.

We are fortunate in having such a man at the head of the nation. His learning, his experience, his temperament, his patriotism, his courage, his probity, his strenuous zeal and energy, all combine to make him an ideal President. In the execution of his high office he has exhibited such striking ability and fidelity that he has inspired the American people with both pride and confidence, while at the same time he has excited the admiration and good will of all the nations of the earth. It is fit cause for congravulation that our victory in Ohio this year will help insure his triumph next year.

HERRICK ASSAILS THE SINGLE TAX.

Col. Myron Herrick, candidate for Governor, spoke next. He opened by quoting the sayings of Circuit Attorney Joseph W. Falk of St. Louis, that "good government rests not on the wealth of citizens, out their integrity."

"The only question between the Repubican party and the so-called Democratic party in Ohio this year," said he, "is the method by which a more equal taxation can be imposed upon and forced against the citizens of the State where any ine-qualities exist. It is fair to discuss single ax, because the leader of the present Ohio Democracy has declared for it and suported it on the stump by recognized exonents of that doctrine.

"I cannot resist calling public attention, in brief, to the fact that such a tax is objectionable to all classes, because it abol-ishes all plans of established revenue serrice; it prevents the assessment of desirable excise, it cannot be equitably assessed; it threatens free institutions; it cuts off the possibility of taxing trusts and corporations.

"It is unjust and not universal; it puts the whole burden of revenue on the few. and not equally; makes the farmer and home owner overpay and the dangerous forms of wealth escape; it would not reach the so-called monopolistic class, and above all has been a disastrous failure in the only all has been a disastrous failure in the only instances of experience."

Col. Herrick then quoted figures in rail-road taxation, asserting an increase of 22.24 per cent. over 1901. In general taxation, he said, the burdens for general revenue of the State had been more equitably distributed. He referred to the law requiring comparations to pay annual fees and taxas corporations to pay annual fees and taxes into the State treasury.

His decision to be a candidate is disclosed in the following letters:

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.

R. Fulton Cutting, Esq.
Sir: We ask you to permit us to present your name and propose your nomination as Alderman to the respective Aldermanic conventions about to be held by the Citizens' Union and the Republican organization of the Eighteenth Assembly district. We have reason to believe that it will be the pleasure of the Greater New York Democracy of this district to follow our request in this matter as well. We trust that you will deem it possible to promptly sanction our wishes. We believe that such expression of readiness on your part to accept such a nomination would be of far reaching and enduring consequences of good to our city. We believe, indeed, that your candidacy for such position in our immicipality would be, as so often exhibited in your disinterested devotion to public affairs, another striking example of high minded citizenship that would find a result and reward in bringing before the various district conventions throughout the city responsible men of repute as candidates for Aldermen.

We believe, further, that the entire fusion ticket will be benefited by your candidacy for this office.

PROMPT QUICK CLEARANCE. Arrival of Fall Goods at the Dobson Store

Demands Early Removal of Surplus Stock

The early arrival of the Fall line of carpets and ugs from their own mills makes it necessary for ohn and James Dobson, 14th st. and 5th ave., to making striking reductions in a surplus lot of fincarpets and rugs to expedite their prompt removal from the show-rooms to allow needed space for the display of the newly arrived goods. A list of the bargains cannot be given here, only a sample: Best Body Brussels Carpets that has been selling all sea on at $1.40 now offered at 9714 cense the yard. This carpet is not a lot of remnants nor short lengths but a dependable grade of favorite staples in all he wanted color and design effects. And in rugs the reductions show to better advantage. Fine Royal Wiltons, size 9212 feet, that have been favorite setlers all year at $87.50, have been cut ten dollars, are now offered at $27.50. A lot of less than a hunred choice Azminster Rugs, in all the new soft dred choice Amminuter Rugs, in all the law solves shades that may go with the most richly appointed parior, are cut to $19.85 from $25. But the buyer must respond readily if first selection is wanted, as these Amminuter Rugs will be placed on sale on Monday only.

followed by suppressed explosions, sound ing as if at a great distance.

Jefferson Reeder, one of the farmers who left his home yesterday on account of the disturbances, came here to-day to consult the State geologist and ask him to visit the place and attempt to solve the mystery. He said that the explosions were increasing in violence, and that yesterday the farmers' kouses in the neighborhood rocked on their foundations. The State Geologist said that he had no theory to advance, nor could be suggest any action to be taken to find the cause.
